Brief summary of the walk: There were opportunities to view bird and plant life. As mentioned the trail could be challenging for some since there were fallen trees obstructing the path as well as rock and root protrusions. We did not split off to the Whales Jaw trail at the fork so can't speak to its condition.

Are there any notable activities in the area that people might want to check out? No

We took this walk-in in September and found it extremely buggy. All in all, it was not a great experience when we were there. Maybe in different seasons, the walk is more enjoyable.
